

Frodsham Primary Academy

24th May 2024

We have come to the end of another very busy half term at Frodsham Academy.

As the term comes to an end, we have, yet again so many wonderful memories from the term so far.

- Trip to the Fire Station
- Trips to Green Gates Park
- Trip to the Roman Museum
- Visits to Frodsham Hill
- Autism Awareness Day
- Mental Health Awareness Day
- Visits from Opal the Therapy Dog
- Bikeability
- Swimming
- A highly successful Safeguarding Audit from the local authority

AND... Our year 6 children being AMAZING during their SAT's.

I would also like to make you aware that Mr Michael, our lovely site manager is currently unwell in hospital. Today, I went to visit Mrs Michael and took along some beautiful cards made by the children. Children have written some lovely messages to cheer Mr Michael up. I am sure you will join me in sending your love and best wishes to Mr Michael and his family as we hope for a speedy recovery.

As we finish for the week ahead, I hope you have a lovely week and I look forward to seeing you all back on Monday 3rd June.

Have a great week,

Mrs Callaghan
